

Special Bulletin

Nashville Film Folks -- HELP NEEDED FOR HOMEGROWN TV PILOT

Local film folks shooting sitcom.

HELLBENT, about three washed up admen who struggle to make a fortune using their skills as craven hucksters to build a phony televangelist ministry, need:

- Production Coordinator
- Assist Director
- Art Director
- Camera Operator
- Wardrobe

All casting is done.

If you can provide assistance, contact Hellbent creator Rob Lindsay at "Rob Lindsay" roblins@comcast.net or 615-419-2299

Synopsis:

Chase Miggot, late forties, has been selling something to someone most of his life. Head of the team at the Crawley-McGiven Agency that was responsible for the loss of the "Take And Put" account, which causes the firing of the entire team: Chase, his right hand man, self-styled lady-killer Alan Bunch, and numbers cruncher/born victim Stu Wieser.

Desperate to create income and convinced their days in advertising are over, they decide the logical use for their skills in selling and schmoozing is -- religion. They will use their "expertise" in advertising double talk to build a church of their own. A ministry for those who can pony up for their spiritual welfare and whose credulity is ripe for exploitation.

www.roblindsaypictures.com